

Amphenol

Global Human Rights Policy

As a leading global manufacturer of interconnect products, we firmly believe business can flourish in an environment that upholds and respects the rights of all people. We further believe in the principles stated in the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. As such, we are committed to respecting and promoting human rights in our relationships with our employees, suppliers and members of the communities within which we operate. Our policies, codes and initiatives reflect this commitment.

At Amphenol, we integrate our commitment to respecting human rights worldwide into our operations and supply chains. As such, we:

- Commit to responsible business practices that do not infringe on human rights including appropriate evaluation of the human rights impacts of activities undertaken by Amphenol.
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations where Amphenol conducts business.
- Conduct on-going training and assessments of Amphenol's operations globally to avoid human rights violations.
- Regularly assess human rights risks and impacts, tracking responses and communicating the results to senior executives and local operational managers.
- Do not permit the use of child labor, forced or compulsory labor in our operations or any of our suppliers.
- Work with our suppliers to uphold the same values and implement similar policies and practices.
- Report transparently on our support of and conduct with respect to human rights.
- Engage openly with stakeholders on issues that impact human rights.
- Provide access to grievance mechanisms allowing employees and suppliers to raise concerns or identify human rights issues or concerns.
- Promptly investigate allegations and pursue action to mitigate any adverse human rights impacts.

At Amphenol, we take our responsibility as a business to respect human rights seriously. We encourage anyone with concerns to speak up and report potential violations. Concerns can be reported to the Amphenol Legal Department at LegalDepartment@amphenol.com or the Amphenol Ethics Hotline at +1.203.265.8555.
